Dinner, Training and Racing!

Please join us for dinner, training, and racing! Be on the lookout for your "Gold Winning Ticket"!

High-Speed Italian Pro-karts

You are invited to dinner and a brief educational training on "Attracting and Motivating Employees Through Improving Company Culture." This is the first of a two part series presented by Chris Himel. Once the meeting concludes the high-speed fun and excitement begins with 3 hours of SPEED at the Autobahn Indoor Speedway of Jacksonville.

Limited Space - RSVP Now

This event is open to owners or management of Air Conditioning contracting companies (limit 2 per company). Limited space available, so RSVP is required. For members of NFACCA the dinner, training, and racing are free of charge. Don't let this educational and entertaining event pass you.
